

CHANGE LIVES.
INCLUDING YOUR OWN.

Interested? Stop in for a brief interview with a Recruiting Specialist

Network Engineer

The Network Engineer implements and maintains complex multi-vended environment local and wide area network infrastructure. Provides input into determination of standards for implementation and configuration of software, hardware and system capabilities. Acts as a resource for problem determination and resolution.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Computer Science or related field.
- 3 years of experience in infrastructure/network environments performing network engineering (hardware and software) and designing, planning, and implementing LANs and WANs using the latest technology.

Join our amazing IT Team

- Aurora's IT team has a highly engaged and dynamic culture. There is a focus on projects that bring value to Aurora. We understand the importance of maintaining system stability, continuous improvement and high performance.
- We offer a variety of projects allowing our team members to be challenged to apply their existing skills and continually learn additional skills.
- We empower our IT team to own the technology and provide a great career path for continued growth.
- Being the largest integrated health care system based in Wisconsin and the state's largest private employer 32,000 with $4.9 Billion in annual revenue, we offer limitless career advancement and a solid tuition reimbursement program.

Contact: Sarah Besch-Cousland | Recruiter | Aurora Health Care | Talent Acquisition | sarah.besch-cousland@aurora.org

Join our Talent Network: <https://aurorahealth.avature.net/talent>

